FACTS OF INTEREST.

The heart of a Greenland whale is three feet in diameter.

The net profits of the Suez Canal for 1883 reached 35,000,000 francs.

A live and lively rattlesnake and a centipede were among the prizes opened at the dead letter office last month.

Reports from various parts of the country indicate that brigandage is again rife in Italy. The Government is adopting energetic measures for the suppression of this national disgrace.

The bread eaten at table in Turin is a yard long and an eighth of an inch in diameter, of a pipestem form, very crisp, and exceedingly palatable. It is called "grissini," after the doctor who invented it on hygienic principles.

South of Long Island, six fathoms beneath the Atlantic, are the remains of a vast marsh. In very clear water roots of great trees can be seen from a boat, and in stormy weather masses of decayed wood and peat are thrown upon the shore.

A correspondent writes to an English paper: "While lying off Madras, in the harbor, on my way from India, I had my attention drawn to a white gentleman with brown legs on a catamaran. It was explained to me that the natives went about the shark-infested harbor with impunity, and that a European had had several narrow escapes until he colored the lower part of his body and its extremities, since which he has gone about unscathed."

At a recent meeting of the Societe de Biologie, of Paris, Dr. Brown-Sequard recounted some novel and singular freaks of aphasia. One of his patients has lost all the words in the language except one, and monotonously repeats that when trying to speak. Yet he sings with facility and artistic feeling. Another talks volubly and coherently in his sleep, but cannot utter a word when he is awake. A third talks freely in delicious paroxysms, but is silent when he is in possession of his reason.

It is announced that a company is now being organized and capitalized to run a series of electric railways across the lower portion of Worcester county and that part of New York which lies north of Harlem River, connecting points on the Hudson River with Long Island Sound. These are intended to connect the railway lines west of the Hudson River—the Erie, Northern New Jersey and West Shore—with the four railways running north through Westchester county from New York City. The electric railway has the advantage of being able to run up or down hill without regard to grade, and it is said to cost $4 a day less per car than a road which uses horses. It is in contemplation to try the electric motor on one of the uptown city lines, and the electricians say that its trial will show that the cable has had its day, and horses will no longer be used except for an emergency.

There is in the possession of a Gettysburg (Pa.) family a relic of the war of the Rebellion, which they have refused to part with, although they have been offered many times its value. The relic in question is a square piano, which went through the great battle of Gettysburg. The house in which the family owning the piano lived was placed at some period of the battle between the fire of the opposing forces, and a conical ball from a rifled cannon, after passing through the brick wall of the house, entered one end of the piano, and had sufficient force left, after passing through the wall of the house and the thick frame of the piano, to penetrate to a point between the iron frame and the sounding-board, where, its force being spent, it remained wedged. The end of the piano has been repaired, and in outward appearance restored, while, as its owner declares, the tone is as good as ever.

The authorities of France have taken up the question of the health of school-children. A commission on the subject was appointed some time ago, and its report is now before the Minister of Education. In it there are some remarks about cleanliness that were to be expected, as a matter of course, and some conclusions about costume that are rather surprising. It seems that French children generally, and especially the children of the very poor, are dressed much too warmly. In the schoolrooms they wear nearly all the outer garments and wraps which they wear out of doors. The report recommends the abolition by law of this senseless custom, and the substitution of a light headress for girls instead of the heavy and cumbersome bonnet which they now wear. The report closes by highly commending the English custom of allowing the children to run about bare-legged and oftentimes bare-headed. It will shock many people to hear that in matters of dress the French are not the teachers of the world.

THEN AND NOW.

The recommendation in opposition to a Constitutional Convention is worthy of heed. Viewed from every possible standpoint there is danger of more harm than good from a Convention, and the safest manner to effect necessary reforms is to proceed through the channel already provided for in the present Constitution. The safest way is always the best way.—Reno Journal.

Two years ago the writer of the above ran for Congress on a platform containing a resolution favoring a Constitutional Convention. He advocated it on the stump and in his paper. During the last session of the Legislature, when the resolution submitting the proposition to the people failed, upon first trial, to pass the Senate, the Reno Journal gave the Senators who voted in opposition a merited scolding for ignoring the will of the people as expressed in both of the political platforms in the State. Whence this wonderful change? It is perfectly evident that the editor of the Journal doesn't intend to count the ties if he can help it.—Tuscarora Times-Review.

The Times-Review is mistaken. The Republican candidate for Congress two years ago took particular care at the Convention to endorse only the National planks in the platform, and on the stump only referred to the National planks in the Republican and Democratic platforms, never once referring to the Constitutional Convention subject. Neither was it favored by the Journal. True the Journal favored the submission of the matter to the people by the Legislature because it believes that platforms are not made to be broken. The people ought always to have the privilege of expressing their views upon such an important matter. And now that they have the opportunity the Journal hopes they will exercise it rightfully by defeating the proposition. There is no need of a Convention. And in the matter of counting ties the editor of the Journal guarantees to count more than the editor of the Times-Review.

THE JUDICIARY POLITICS.

The Enterprise of Sunday enters its protest against the way in which many of the Judges in this State mix in the not altogether translucent pool of politics. It says:

Our District Court Judges, with one or two exceptions, are too fond of rolling in the mire of politics. They run primaries, figure in conventions and out altogether too prominent a figure in political affairs for the honor and independence of the judiciary. Judges Murphy, Edwards, Boardman and Bigelow are as much politicians as they are Judges. It is time to give the Nevada judiciary a gentle hint to observe the proprieties respected by honorable gentlemen on the bench in other States, and to let them understand that their party can manage its conventions without their making their assistance so conspicuous. We have nothing to say against the integrity as judicial officers, nor do we intimate that their advice and counsel in party matters are undesirable, but the practice of District Judges actively participating in political conventions is not calculated to inspire respect for the judiciary. Judge Rives, however, goes a step farther and has taken the stump in his district.

The Elko Free Press has made its appearance as a daily, which is an indication of lively times in Elko county, which last year paid more taxes in to the State Treasury than any other county in Nevada.

Merit must likewise be rewarded. The average official needs more than the private consciousness of being faithful to his trust.

President Arthur is reported as being desirous of entering the United States Senate from New York, when he leaves the White House. Blaine is said to favor his wishes.

STATE AFFAIRS.

The session of the Legislature of 1883 cost $53,378 05. By reducing the time of the session from 60 to 40 days, number of members from 60 to 45, that is from 20 to 15 Senators and from 40 to 30 Assemblymen, carrying with it a proportionate reduction in mileage, stationery and expenses of officers and attaches, and a saving of $20,000, an average of $10,000 per annum, can justly be effected without injury to the public service.

In salaries of State officers our judgment dictates the following:

	Present Salary.	Reduced Salary.	Saving.
Governor.....	$ 5,000	$ 4,000	$1,000
Governor's Sec'y.....	2,000	2,000
Lieut. Governor.....	2,700	2,700
Sec'y of State.....	3,000	3,000
Dep. Sec'y of State.....	2,000	2,000
Comptroller.....	3,000	3,000
Dep'ty. Controller.....	2,000	2,000
Treasurer.....	3,000	3,000
Dep'ty. Treasurer.....	2,000	2,000
Surveyor General.....	3,000	3,000
Dep. Surveyor Gen.....	2,000	2,000
Attorney General.....	3,000	3,000
Supt. Public In.....	2,400	2,400
Supreme Judges (3).....	20,000	17,000	3,000
Clerk Supreme C.....	2,400	2,400

This reduces the salary of the Governor $1,000, saves $3,000 on account of the Bench, dispenses with the services of the Governor's Private Secretary, Deputy Secretary of State, Deputy Controller, Deputy Treasurer, Deputy Surveyor General, and contemplates the abandonment of the salary paid the Lieutenant Governor, Clerk of the Supreme Court and Supt. of Public Instruction, thus reducing expenses $21,500 per annum. But all of this money cannot be saved. The Secretary of State can be made ex-officio Clerk of the Supreme Court, and some other constitutional officer can be required to do the work of the State Superintendent. There will have to be a State Librarian, and the regular officers will require, at times, extra clerical help. If the odd $6,500 be appropriated for this, under direction of the Board of Examiners, we believe every officer will be compensated fairly, the interests of the people protected, and the efficiency of the public service be unimpaired. Therefore $15,000 per annum can be saved in the Executive and Judicial Departments, $10,000 in the Legislative, making $25,000 for the three.

The Prison, Asylum, Orphan's Home, and other public charities, now cost the State less than ever before in its history. The time is near at hand when the expenses of these will be less by $10,000 a year.

While State expenses can and should be reduced, the greatest burden which the taxpayers of Nevada have to endure comes from the county governments. Let the good citizens of each county devise the proper manner to reduce county expenses, and it will not be long before we shall have a model State and county government.

An order recently issued by the Grand Army of the Republic contains the following: "The attention of the Posts in this department is directed to the action of the last national encampment in regard to Posts holding picnics on Sunday. Such objectionable use of the holy day was strongly and justly disapproved by that body, and the Department Commander believes such opinion meets the approval of every right-minded comrade who has a proper respect for the welfare and public reputation of the order. The Department Commander is in receipt of official information which shows that Posts in this department may be imposed upon by persons claiming extraordinary privileges as honorary members of the Grand Army of the Republic. The Department Commander is not aware of the existence of any such membership, does not believe in it, and will not recognize it in this department. Post Commanders are warned against hasty action in extending privileges or pledging the support of the Grand Army of the Republic to further the unwarrantable claims of self-styled honorary members."

The project of establishing a telephone across the Atlantic Ocean is assuming shape, and experiments to determine its practicability are to be made. The first experiment in submarine telephoning will be made between Halifax, Nova Scotia, and Gloucester, Mass., a distance of 850 miles.

The average Cleveland man becomes very despondent when asked: "Have you heard the news from Maine?"

Kasson Presents His Credentials

A special from Berlin says: When Kasson presented his credentials, the Emperor listened with his wonted benign appearance of courteous attention. to Kasson's short address, couched in the stereotyped formalities and expressions of amity on such occasions. The Emperor replied, saying that he was very glad of the existence of good and friendly relations with the United States and hoped the few Minister would maintain them. After this formal exchange of courtesies the Emperor spoke for a few minutes in his usual friendly manner with the Minister, who then withdrew for the purpose of calling on the Empress, who received him, surrounded by the ladies of her Court, most graciously and affably. Her Majesty asked Kasson particularly about the President and his family. It is here generally believed that Kasson is the right man. His familiarity with the German language and customs has a most excellent effect, and coupled with his past diplomatic career is most thoroughly appreciated.

Premonitions of Dementia.

The Herald prints in a dozen places the following: "We are now confirmed in our opinion that the colored vote is solid for Blaine." The Herald also says: "The Maine election has turned out so disastrously for the Blaine people, that the political ground-swell begins to take on the dimensions of a tidal wave. The election of Cleveland is as certain as any future event can be. It is not too early even now to begin to consider the Cleveland Cabinet." The Herald then suggests and enlists Bayard, Randall and Thurman as good Cabinet timber for President Cleveland.

Improved Railway Mail Service.

Superintendent Thompson, of the Railway Mail Bureau, has arranged to have the San Francisco letter mail on the Ogden and San Francisco Railway Postoffice separated for carrier's stations and box delivery on the cars. This is expected to greatly facilitate the delivery of mails in San Francisco.

A Cheeky Correspondent.

While on the train between Elmira and Corning, Gov. Cleveland was asked by a Herald correspondent if he had heard anything about the Maine election. The Governor remarked that he had not, nor had he given it a thought.

The Republican Majority in Maine Over 20,000.

A special from Augusta says the total vote of the State will reach 142,410. Robie's majority over Redman is 20,615. This is the largest majority ever given a candidate for Governor in this State in a Presidential year.

Blaine's Monies.

The New York World prints three cuts of the house Blaine was born in, where he lives in Augusta, and his palatial residence in Washington, with the words "Twenty Years in Congress, commercially."

It is said that negroes scarcely ever commit suicide. They may be hard up from the day of their birth to the day of their death, but they rarely become melancholy. Notwithstanding their complaints of hard times, the give-me-a-nickel expression on their faces and general hungry appearance, they hang on to life with the tenacity of a mud turtle. They do it not for the hope of something better, but simply for the fun they will have.

Don't fail to vote for Dan Boyd for County Treasurer. It's dollars to apples that the money is always in the safe, and that the time-clock will work all right. Besides this prerequisite Dan has all the other necessary qualifications, prominent among which is the fact that he is the regular Republican nominee.

There are 6,000,000 Mexicans who can neither read nor write, never slept in a bed, never wore a stocking, and live in a mud hut furnished with a three-legged stool and a water jug.

The reduction of the debt, less cash in the Treasury, in August was in round numbers eight millions and a half, ($8,542,852.) This is at the rate of a little over $100,000,000 a year.

Sheriff Emmitt has made one of the most faithful and efficient officers this county has ever had in the Sheriff's office. He has been true to the people and their interests. The people will be false to themselves if they do not retain him. Emmitt has been tried, and deserves his reelection by a large majority.

A Valuable Thing for Miners.

A Colorado miner has suggested a new idea to H. N. Copp, the land lawyer and publisher of Washington, D. C., as to what is wanted by practical men in the mineral regions. The result is Copp's Prospector's Manual, price 50 cents, now before us. It purports to enable a prospector to determine with reasonable certainty any mineral he may discover. Acid and blowpipe tests are given in abundance. Considerable space is given to descriptions of gold, silver, copper and other metals and their compounds, gems, paints, etc., with tables to determine all known minerals.

In addition, it gives the United States and local mining laws to date, Land Office instructions, and valuable forms for location notices, miner's liens, proofs, leases, deeds, and applications for patent.

Every enterprising business man and miner in this region should have a copy. You may discover a rich mine in walking out some Sunday with your best girl.

SUPREME LODGE, K. OF P.

The Canadian Members Already Preparing for the Session of 1885.

The Toronto Mail, of August 29th, contains the following particularly interesting to members of the order of Knights of Pythias:

The Knights of Pythias, as compared with most other orders in Canada, have made but little public appearance. They are now arousing to the fact that public demonstrations or parades are an important factor in attracting attention to its aims and objects, and to that end an effort is being made to supply a public demonstration on a scale of magnitude and beauty in 1885, which they claim has not at any time been excelled, if equalled, by any other society in Canada. That occasion will be the meeting of the Supreme Lodge of the World in Toronto in July of 1886. It is expected the body then meeting here will be composed of past supreme chancellors and the supreme officers, together with supreme representatives from forty to forty-five grand lodges situated in the various States and Territories, and Provinces of this continent, as well as from Mexico and other countries. That body is the fountain of authority and legislation for the entire order, and represent nearly 200,000 members. In addition to the ordinary beneficiary to the members, it offers to its endowment sections the facility for securing endowments for members' families of from one to three thousand dollars in each case, of which advantage over thirty thousand members have already availed themselves. As a special attraction to young men it has in splendid working order a semi-military feature known as the uniform rank division, which, though recently established, has over 10,000 active members. These are elegantly equipped, and not excelled in appearance by any society outfit. It is this latter branch and feature of the order which gives splendor to their public demonstrations, and this branch of the Order is that which it is expected will appear in force on the streets of Toronto. Each division or company has three principal officers, the Sir Knight Commander, Lieut. Commander, and Herald, and not less than twenty-four men in a division, all thoroughly drilled in all company movements, as well as what is known in fancy movements of ingenious design and attractive to the eye of an on-looker. Of these, from six to ten divisions will form a grand division, and it is anticipated that there will be sufficient to form from 10 to 15 grand divisions for the Toronto parade, equivalent to as many regiments of soldiers. These with their numerous banners and splendid bands of music will be formed into column and precede the Supreme Lodge on the line of march. This body will probably occupy not less than fifty carriages, among which will be found four horse carriages containing Supreme Lodge Officers. It has been the custom to hold these demonstrations at great centres of population once in two years, but hitherto they have always been held in the United States, where citizens have vied with each other in making their city appear to the very best advantage, and their visitors feel that the citizens were extending a generous welcome. The event will be the first of its kind in Canada, and intended to prove to Canadians the universality of the Order, and the adaptability of its principles and benefits to all. The supreme representatives from Ontario strove hard to secure the meeting for Toronto, which fact, in connection with the election of Dr. King, of Toronto, as one of the chief officers of that body, has stimulated the Order throughout Ontario to make determined efforts to give the supreme body, and the thousands of American visitors who will come, a worthy reception, and in this they hope to be seconded by citizens generally. The supreme body will be in session for not less than ten days, and entertainments, excursions, and other means will be resorted to in order to make the visit a pleasant one. It is expected that not less than 20,000 Americans will visit Toronto at that time, as excursions will be had from far-off States as well as those more adjacent. Among other events will be grand prizes for competitive drill, and prizes for bands of music—altogether it will be a gala time. Steps are now being taken to organize a first-class lodge of active, influential citizens, and the fact that Dr. King, S. H. Mitchell and A. J. Rattray have taken the matter in hand, augurs well for its success. The latter part of September will see active work in progress.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM!
Adopted at the State Convention
Held in Carson, September
4th, 1884.

The Republican party of Nevada in convention assembled deems it unnecessary at this time to supplement its platform of principles, adopted at the convention held at Virginia City, April 30, by adding anything further upon questions of national concern. It renews its adherence to the principles embodied in that platform, and to-day, fully confident of the success of the Republican party of the Nation in the coming Presidential election, congratulates the Republican voters of the State upon the selection by the Chicago Convention of their choice for standard bearer, that dauntless and resolute patriot and statesman, James G. Blaine, with General John A. Logan as his associate on the ticket. It adopts as an intelligible creed of political principles the platform of the last Republican National Convention, the triumph of which principles it believes will insure a renewed era of national progress and prosperity. In the political campaign which has to be fought out in the State of Nevada the Republican party believes it can render no higher service to the people than by calling their attention to the imperative necessity which is upon them to demand and secure re-election in every department of the State Government. It therefore declares:

First—That the Republican party of Nevada, when it says reform, means it; and that, disgusted with the vague and idle professions by which, year after year, the intelligence of voters has been insulted, their credulity overtaxed, and their long-suffering patience abused, it declares that it is in favor of, and will seek to carry into effect by Legislative enactment the following specific measures of reform and any others that may be developed as salutary.

The reduction of the number of members of the Legislature, and the number of officers and employees of both houses thereof.

Second—It is a well known and universally conceded fact that the existing high rates of State and county taxation now levied and collected are burdensome and oppressive on the people of the State, and thereby tend to discourage immigration and the introduction and investment of capital; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the imperative duty of our next Legislature to devote its early and constant attention to reform legislation that such laws may be passed as will bring about a marked reduction in the present expense of running our State and county governments, and by a reduction of the number of existing judicial districts, consolidation of county governments, State and county offices and reduction of salaries of not less than thirty per cent.

Third—That we are in favor of amending the State Constitution, and pledge the Republican party to that method of constitutional reform, so as to limit the regular sessions of the Legislature to forty instead of sixty days, as at present.

Fourth—That in view of the fact that necessary constitutional reform can be accomplished by amendments to the State Constitution as speedily and effectively as by a revision of that instrument by a Constitutional Convention—a doubtful experiment under the most favorable circumstances—we hereby recommend the voters of the State to vote at the next general election against calling a Constitutional Convention.

Resolved, That in the mining, manufacturing, agricultural and grazing interests of this State lie the elements of life and prosperity. We therefore pledge the Republican party of this State to legislation tending to the fostering and advancement of these interests.

Resolved, That we will strive to point to the administration of President Arthur as a model for the future conduct of this Republic, and we congratulate the Nation upon the eminently successful services rendered by him as President of these United States.

Resolved, That as citizens of the State of Nevada we are proud of the record made by Senators J. B. Jones in the halls of the National Legislature, and as Republicans we congratulate ourselves and our party in having a man at the head of the party in this State whose private life is irreproachable, whose public life is stainless, whose ability is universally recognized, and whose position among the leaders of the Republican party in the Nation and in the Senate of the United States is such as to give any resident of Nevada just cause for pride.
